TOURNAMENT ASSOCIATION.

The Old Dominion Fair and Tournament Association, a local organization had arranged for and extensively novertised us first annual exhibition, but it was believed by the gentlemen of the Association. Mr. Lee Todd and Mr. W. J. Carter and the gentlemen of the Civic Carnival Committer, that an amalgamation of the two bodies would tend to make of the joint celebration a big thing for Richmond, and at the same time give the thousands of prospective visitors to the city something worth coming to see.

At a meeting held at Murphy's Hotel, therefore, the two bodies merged, and everybody joined hands for the purpose of getting up a creditable celebration.

From that inoment it was seen that Mr. Sterns suggestion had been a wise one. The various committees set to work TOURNAMENT ASSOCIATION.
